

The Austrian Federal Chamber of Labour, the Austrian Trade Union Federation and Alliance for Lobbying Transparency and Ethics Regulation (ALTER-EU) cordially invite you to a press launch of:

“Who’s driving the agenda at DG Enterprise and Industry?”

July 10 from 13.00 to 14.30 in the Passage of Résidence Palace
Rue de la Loi 155, 1040 Brussels

ALTER-EU will present its new report providing an analysis of DG Enterprise and Industry’s expert groups. The report which shows how corporate interests dominate a significant proportion of expert groups, while other interests groups, such as civil society groups, labour unions and small and medium enterprises are hardly heard.

MEPs Monica Macovei (Romania, EPP) and Dennis de Jong (The Netherlands, GUE/NGL) have confirmed their presence on the panel and will share their views on how the Parliament and Commission can work together to improve expert groups’ transparency and balance.

Antonio Tajani, Vice-President of the European Commission and responsible for Industry and Entrepreneurship, is also invited.

A lunch with sandwiches will be provided for. We look forward to having you with us.

RSVP by 6 July to Bruno Nicostrate at ceo@corporateeurope.org

Amir Ghoreishi
on behalf of the Austrian
Federal Chamber of Labour

Oliver Roepke
on behalf of the Austrian
Trade Union Federation

Yiorgos Vassalos
on behalf of ALTER-EU’s
Steering Committee